

The invention refers to stomatology and it is meant for determination of the mandible fractures consolidation dynamics.

Summary of the invention consists in that in the 1, 7, 14, 21 days of treatment upon the mandible central fragment it is exerted a dosed pressure up to the appearance of painful sensibility in the trauma region.