

a 2007 0142

The invention refers to medicine, namely to the pediatric neurology and obstetrics and may be used for early prophylaxis and treatment of nervous system diseases to children, which are caused by the intrauterine immaturity of nervous system.

Summary of the method consists in that it is daily administered per os the preparation Maturinol after meals at the age of 1 month – 30 drops, at the age of 2 months – 1,5 ml, at 3 months – 3 ml, at 4...6 months – 6...12 ml, at 7 and more months for 1 ml/kg of weight, the dose being divided into 2...3 intakes a day, concomitantly it is administered lecithine for 200...300 mg 2...3 times a day and vegetable oil for 0,5...2 ml 2...3 times a day during meals, the treatment cure being of 2...12 months.

Claims: 1