

a 2007 0239

The herbicidal suspension comprises a sulfonyleurea compound or its salt as a herbicidal component, at least one surfactant selected from the group consisting of an alkoxyated sorbitol fatty acid ester and an alkoxyated sorbitan fatty acid ester, and a water immiscible diluent.

The method for controlling undesired plants or inhibiting their growth provides for applying of a herbicidally effective amount of the herbicidal suspension to the undesired plants or to a place where they grow.

Claims: 17